

Tutor (Hourly Paid): SEND
Southend Adult Community College

Salary: £21.06 – £24.45 per hour (depending on qualifications and contracted courses)

Hours: Hourly Paid – As and When

We are looking for Tutor to teach on the SEND programmes at our Southchurch and Westcliff sites for learners with moderate to severe learning disabilities and difficulties.

Main purpose of the job:

To teach and engage with learners with particular special needs in classroom based activities to facilitate the delivery of the curriculum and enable learners to gain full access to their education. To do this successfully you:

- Will need to be passionate and experienced at delivering high quality teaching to groups of adults with additional educational requirements
- Will have previous experience of curriculum delivery and a track record of successful learner outcomes
- Will need to have a Diploma in Education and Training at Level 3 (or be willing to obtain this within 3 years)

We offer excellent support, training and mentoring to all new members of staff.

Southend Adult Community College welcomes applications regardless of gender, disability, age, ethnicity, sexual orientation or faith.

The college is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment and that students and staff can study and work in an environment free from harassment and bullying.

Southend Adult Community College aims to achieve curriculum excellence by promoting consistently high standards of teaching, learning and assessment across all provision. We expect all academic staff to take Personal Responsibility In Delivering Excellence (PRIDE).

Southend Adult Community College is committed to ensuring that all learners, apprentices and staff understand how to keep themselves and others safe in college, in the community and in the workplace. We ensure our College community promotes a safe place to work and learn and we will put appropriate measures in place to safeguard learners and apprentices in the context of our geographical areas. This includes our duty under PREVENT to protect learners from radicalisation.

This role is not involved in regulated activity with Children and or vulnerable adults. This role will require an appropriate clearance from the Disclosure and Barring Service.

Pre-employment checks and training will include safeguarding training and a sound understanding of Keeping Children Safe in Education.
