This policy is designed to enable acceptable use for staff, governors and volunteers.

The College provides a range of ICT resources which are available to staff members, volunteers and governors. In order to ensure the safety of staff, governors and volunteers and our ultimately learners, it is important that all staff members, governors and volunteers follow the guidelines detailed below.

This policy aims to:

- Promote the professional, ethical, lawful and productive use of the College's ICT systems and infrastructure.

- Define and identify unacceptable use of the college's ICT systems and external systems.

- Educate users about their data security responsibilities.

- Describe why monitoring of the ICT systems may take place.

- Define and identify unacceptable use of social networking sites and college devices.

- Specify the consequences of non-compliance.

This policy applies to staff members, governors, volunteers. All users of the College's ICT systems are expected to read and understand this policy. To confirm acceptance of the policy, users will sign an IT Acceptable Use Agreement which is attached to this policy. Breach of this policy may result in disciplinary action.

The use by staff and monitoring by the College of its electronic communications systems is likely to involve the processing of personal data and is therefore regulated by the Data Protection Act 2018, together with the Employment Practices Data Protection Code issued by the Information Commissioner. Staff are referred to the College's Data Protection Policy for further information.

If you are in doubt and require clarification on any part of this document, please speak to the IT Security & Network Manager.

Provision of ICT Systems

All equipment that constitutes the College's ICT systems is the sole property of the College.

No personal equipment will be connected to or used with the College's ICT systems without written permission from the Network Support Team. Users must not try to install any software on the ICT systems without permission from the IT Security & Network Manager. If software is installed without permission, it may cause extensive damage to the ICT systems and users could be held personally liable for any costs incurred in rectifying the damage.

The IT Security & Network Manager is responsible for purchasing and/or allocating ICT equipment to individuals. Individual laptop/desktop computers or ICT equipment may be removed at any time, without prior warning, for regular maintenance, reallocation or any other operational reason. Maintenance includes, but is not limited to, new software installations, software updates, reconfiguration of settings and computer re-imaging.

Users are not permitted to make any physical alteration, either internally or externally, to the College's computers, laptops or network hardware.

Network access and security

All users of the ICT systems at the College must first be registered. Following registration, a network user account will be created, consisting of a username, password and an e-mail address. All passwords should be complex to ensure data and network security. All user account details are for the exclusive use of the individual to whom they are allocated. Staff are responsible for ensuring their password remains confidential and their account secure.

All users are personally responsible and accountable for all activities carried out under their user account(s). Users must take all reasonable precautions to protect their user account details and must not share them to any other person, except to designated members of the Network Support Team for the purposes of system support. Users must report any security breach or suspected breach of their network, email or application account credentials to the Network Support Team as soon as possible.

Users should only access areas of the college's computer systems to which they have authorised access.

When any computer is left unattended, it must either be logged off or locked. Activity that threatens the integrity of the college ICT systems, or activity which attacks or corrupts other systems, is forbidden. Users' internet activity must not compromise the security of the data on the college ICT systems or cause difficulties for any other users.

Under no circumstances should a learner be allowed to use a staff computer account, unless being directly supervised by the account owner.
